ORDER

Before the Court is the “Motion to Withdraw Pending Motion for Appointment of Counsel” [Docket #94], filed by Defendant John Wiley Price (“Mr. Price”) on January 28, 2015. The Motion is GRANTED. On August 18, 2014, Mr. Price filed a Motion for Appointment of Counsel [Docket #30]. After the Court referred the Motion to Magistrate Judge Toliver [Docket #33], Judge Toliver denied the Motion without prejudice, finding that Mr. Price had failed to demonstrate that he was financially unable to employ counsel [Docket #51]. Mr. Price objected to her ruling. [Docket #60].

On January 27, 2015, the Court conducted a hearing on Mr. Price’s Objection. At the hearing, Mr. Price’s counsel asked the Court to set an additional hearing date to give Mr. Price the opportunity to testify about his finances. On January 27, 2015, the Court sent Mr. Price’s counsel an identical version of the Order entered today, January 28, 2015, on what the Court would require before and at the hearing, so Mr. Price could begin compiling the information [Docket #93]. Mr. Price did not move for the Order to be filed under seal, nor did he move to redact or seal the transcript of the hearing before Judge Toliver on Mr. Price's Motion for Appointment of Counsel [Docket #63]. If Mr. Price reasserts his Motion for Appointment of Counsel, the information described in the Court's Order of January 28, 2015 [Docket #93] will be required.

SO ORDERED.
